Celebrate the Power of Your Card This September

Library Card Sign-Up Month Celebrating The Power of Your Card

Your Wilmette library card is one of the most powerful cards in your wallet. Giving you access to hundreds of thousands of items at Wilmette Public Library, our neighboring libraries, and facilities across the state, your card is a ticket to learning, discovery, and enjoyment.

You're Never Too Young to Get a Card

Did you know there is no minimum age to get a Wilmette library card? Children are invited to get their first card and begin a lifelong relationship with reading.

It's Never Too Late to Get a Card

Don't have a Wilmette library card? Now's the time! If you're new to the area or simply ready to access the library's deep resources and collections, stop by and sign up! We can't wait to share the world of the library with our new cardholders.

Cardholder Quick Facts

- More than 16,000 Wilmette and Kenilworth residents have Wilmette library cards
  - Wilmette is a member of a consortium with 29 area libraries, giving you access to millions of items in our combined collections
  - Some of our favorite resources to access with a Wilmette library card include the New York Times, Creativebug, Mango Languages, and Ancestry
- Keep an eye out for more cardholder benefits throughout this issue!

Shop Books Down Under!

Buy gently used books for all ages at Wilmette's only bookstore, located on the Lower Level of the library. All proceeds from book sales and donations to the Friends support library programs, including Summer Reading Clubs and Wilmette Reads.

Find current BDU hours and information about donating to the Friends at wilmettelibrary.info/friends
